GRUUVE is the alias of Argentine-born, Barcelona-based producer and DJ Tomás Acosta. His sound moves freely across house and its many shades, from deep to tech house, always built on groove and with percussion as his signature.

Self-taught and with a clear vision, he has steered clear of generic formulas and built his name on creativity, authenticity and perseverance. His music has been released on Jamie Jones' Paradise, Dennis Cruz's BotaniQ, Deeperfect, Glasgow Underground, La Zic, DOSMUNDOS, Muse and his own label MUUV. "Cloud" (Glasgow Underground, 2021) reached #1 on Beatport's Deep House chart and held it for three consecutive months. In summer 2023 his two-track EP on Paradise drew massive global support, and in 2026 he debuted on BotaniQ with the Weird Call EP.

His records are a constant in the sets of the genre's leading names, with support from Marco Carola, Jamie Jones, Michael Bibi, Hot Since 82, Dennis Cruz, Nic Fanciulli, Franky Rizardo and many more. He plays key venues in Barcelona and abroad, and in summer 2026 he played Output's BotaniQ showcase during Barcelona's OFF Week, on the same bill as Dennis Cruz and Marco Carola.
